

SIL-UND in the know

Info for 2019

Tuition Cost: $1725-2050, includes 6-10 credit hours.

(Financial aid available, including Federal Student Aid, Pell grants, etc.)

Dates: June 3 - Aug 2 (9 weeks)

General info

Housing/meals: We offer a cozy dorm room and a full meal plan with healthy and special diet options for the low cost of $1720.

Classes offered every summer: We suggest our Package A courses for your first summer. Some people start with the Literacy Megacourse. See back.

Requirements: Two years of college or other post-high-school study, minimum GPA of 2.75, college-level ability in English. Exceptions are possible – write to us.

Get here: Travel by plane, bus, train, car, or bike! We're conveniently located in North Dakota.

Transfer courses: Your credits will be earned from the University of North Dakota. You can transfer courses to and from most accredited institutions.

Childcare: We offer a full service childcare program, available six hours per day. And we only charge $500-650 per child for the whole summer!

Visiting us: Not sure if you want to spend a whole summer? No problem! Come visit us! You can stay for two days (with FREE lodging!) and experience the glory of SIL-UND. Send an email to joinus@silund.org for more info.

SIL-UND in the know

Courses every summer

Package A (10 credits)

Articulatory Phonetics or

Signed Language Phonetics

Sociolinguistics

Syntax and Morphology I

Second Language Acquisition

Package B (10 credits)

spoken languages

Phonology I

Field Methods

Media Technology

Ethnographic Methods

signed languages

SL Morphosyntax

SL Phonology

Field Methods

Media Technology

Special classes offered in 2019

Literacy Megacourse

Typology and Discourse

Lexicography

Historical Linguistics

Semantics and Pragmatics

Writing Systems

Academic Writing

EITHER Language Documentation OR Sociolinguistic
Survey (one or the other – we'll decide by April 1)